PROGRAM NOTES

Fünf Lieder

Johannes Brahms (1833-1897) was a German composer of the Romantic period. A large selection of Brahms works are inspired and modeled after classical styles. Brahms idolized the use of the folksong, creating several pieces including the strophic lied. "Sonntag" is a part of Brahms' work with text from an anonymous folksong. The piece is a simple and relaxed motif that evokes the feeling of a pining lover.
